

அறிக்கையும் கலந்துரையும் இயல்
Presentation & Discussion

Preventing Suicides in the N & E
ம.க.தேவ் சுவாமிநாதன்
குமாரசாமிநாதன் சுவாமிநாதன்

Suicide is a major problem in the post war north & east Sri Lanka. What is causing this? Can the trend be reversed?

Threats facing the farming sector and the general population of Jaffna peninsula
பாழ்வரசன் குமாரசாமிநாதன், சுவாமிநாதன் குமாரசாமிநாதன்

In the future will there be a genetic map?

Presenter: Maval T Nithiamandan
(Diploma, SLS Trust, Sri Lanka)

16 August 2017 Wednesday
7:30 pm - 9:30 pm
at ESK Institute, 203 Gladstone Rd., Dandenong

25 August 2017 Friday
7:30 pm - 9:30 pm
at ESK Institute, 203 Gladstone Rd., Dandenong

27 August 2017 Sunday
3:00 pm - 5:00 pm
at Epping Memorial Hall (No. 7), 827 High Street.

SLS Trust

Meet the presenter:
Rene Maval is a professional engineer with a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Sri Lanka and postgraduate degree in Agricultural Engineering from Cranfield University UK. He possesses in-depth knowledge and experience in the field of agriculture during his tenure with the Department of Agriculture, Sri Lanka for 10 years, most of which time he spent being and working in the Agriculture Research Centre in Maha Wapalaha. After working as a specialist in the field of natural gas engineering in Australia for 22 years, with over 10 Sri Lanka's years ago he came to a realization that focusing on suicide prevention and farming practices. Recently he extensively travelled in South India to study the latest developments in organic farming.

Dr. Arjuna Arinamindegalle 0811716499 Email: arjuna@arjuna.com

letchumananm@gmail.com